

PRESS RELEASE - February 13, 2010

Andee Beierle wins 2010 PITFIT Scholarship

Monique Motorsports is pleased to announce that Andee is one of 6 people to receive the PitFit scholarship for 2010. PitFit was formed in 1997 by Jim Leo working with Penske Motorsports to develop a fitness program suited specifically for enhancing race car driver performance. PitFit has been attended by people such as Kasey Kahne, Chad Boat, and Sam Hornish Jr among others. This prestigious award is given to 6 people who represent different aspects of motor sports. Andee submitted her application with hundreds of others hoping to win the award representing females that race on dirt. The award is given each year in the memory of the late Tony Renna. Winners of this award are given on site evaluation and training in Indianapolis, Indiana, along with continued online training throughout the year. In addition they receive awards and prizes from the generous sponsors who support PitFit. For more information and to follow Andee's progress go to: pitfit.com